Dear Judge Real,

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. I imagine you must read thousands of these types of letters. So, I wanted to make sure my letter stood out from the others.

There is not a day that goes by that I don't regret my actions. I can't change the past. I've hurt people that truly love me. I've robbed my daughters of their father. My mom of her son, and my brother of his big brother. I was selfish, and want to apologize to them, and let them know that I'm sorry for the hurt I have caused them.

Since you last saw me I've been praying, hoping, and preparing in case one day I was given an opportunity to stand before you again. I know that actions speak louder than words. Saying sorry is not enough. Demonstrating that I deserve a second chance I know carries a lot more weight, and meaning. Then saying I deserve a second chance, and am rehabilitated with nothing to show. This is what I've been doing in the 9 years I've been in prison.

I've earned enough credits to obtain 3 AA degrees. In the following American History, Arts and Humanities, and Human Behavioral Science. I'm two courses away from earning in earning a degree in Business. My plan is to petition for graduation this coming fall. During my time as a student I've maintained a GPA of 3.65. Making Presidents list once, and another time making Deans list. I've included a copy of my education transcript. The courses show 48 hours, and 80 hours are college courses.

Vocational Training I've obtained a Teacher Aide I completion certificate. This vocation course consisted of 4,000 hours of on the job training, and instruction. This training was sponsored by the United States Department of Labor. It took me a little over 3 years to earn. Other Vocational Courses I've completed include a 100hr course in Office Automation, and another 100hr in Adobe Illustrator CS5. I was also selected to participate in a 12 hour Lean 6 Sigma course which is considered a vocational course also,

I participated in a Victim Impact course. This course taught me that there are many types of victims. People that love, and care about me. It showed me to look at things in a different perspective. It showed me how to have empathy.

I know that a strong foundation is very important. Drug addiction has always been a downfall, and a problem for me. That's why I participated in The following programs 6 month Non-Residential Drug Program, A 15 hour Drug Abuse Program, and a certificate for participating in Narcotics Anonymous.

I have participated in 3 separate types of parenting classes as well. I know I learned a great deal from these courses.

For the majority of the time I've been in prison I've worked in the Education Department. My title was Computer VT Clerk. My duties included assisting students in learning and understanding Office Automation this included the basics in Word, Publisher, and Excel. It was 100 hour training. There was also a advanced 100 hour course that taught students Adobe Illustrator. I created assignments, graded assignments and tests. I assisted all education staff as needed. This included helping special needs students obtain their GED. In 2013 I was presented with a certificate for Tutor of the Year. In 2014 I earned another for Employee of the Year. In the same year I was awarded a certificate of appreciation by the education Department.

In my off time I volunteered to instruct classes, RPP was one of the ones I really liked to teach. That class consisted in learning Employment search skills, Resume Writing, Financial Management, and Interview skills. Other classes I instructed Money Smart, Public speaking, and many others.

I've participated in over 60 ACE (Adult Continued Education) classes. In a variety of subjects I've included certificates with this letter.

This is what I've been doing since you last saw me. I want to thank you again for taking the time to read my letter.

Sincerely,
Albert Ortega

July 1, 2015

To Whom It May Concern:

I was introduced to Albert Ortega when I became a GED teacher at USP Atwater in July 2013 and inherited him as a tutor from the previous teacher. From day one Ortega was quick to assist me in any way possible and always remained on task. In looking through his work profile and speaking with senior staff members in the Education Department, I found that Ortega started his career with Education in 2011. He was originally hired as a Vocational Trades tutor for the Computer Applications program but soon was trained to assist with various courses and programs within the department. When I arrived the Computer Applications instructor position was vacant, so he was moved into the GED classroom. As of August 2014 he moved back to Computer Applications to tutor Adobe Illustrator and Microsoft Office but assisted with GED tutoring regularly.

Ortega quickly evolved from a self-driven tutor into an exceptional assistant that was always looking at ways to make tasks more efficient for myself, my students and the department as a whole. He assisted in class daily, mostly in the area of writing and study skills, as that is his area of expertise. He constructed worksheets and posters to serve as classroom resources and to brighten up the learning environment. He participated in classroom discussions, often giving his opinion from life experiences and what he was learning in his college correspondence courses. He worked well with everyone, including myself, other staff members and his peers. I couldn't ask for anything more from him as an employee.

Aside from GED tutor, Ortega assisted me with maintaining the Adult Continuing Education (ACE) courses I coordinated which ran in classrooms for the general population and through correspondence for students in disciplinary housing. He would help me plan which courses to add or remove from the schedule based on feedback we received from the general population. He would create flyers for said courses and ensure they were posted in areas where high traffic ran. Once classes started he not only taught various courses but maintained the running record of attendance for the other courses throughout each semester. When each semester was completed Ortega generated a list of completions and created certificates for myself and the Supervisor of Education to sign prior to distribution.

Ortega also worked with the college coordinator to create an ACE course that would assist his peers with applying for college correspondence classes and how to complete documents such as an application, assignments, midterms and final exams. Once the curriculum for this course was accepted by the Supervisor of Education, Ortega took the initiative to teach it over the weekend days. The class had a great outcome and enrollment for college correspondence classes increased drastically. Students gave great feedback and expressed their thanks to Ortega. He then trained another Education clerk to take over the class so he may focus on new courses. His latest course was Smart Money- a Guide to Personal Finance. Ortega assisted the Computer Applications instructor with the development of the curriculum and then taught the class twice a week.

As responsibilities and clerks shifted in our department Ortega was always able to adapt to assist others and stepped in to learn something new without hesitating. He assisted me with updating the Release Preparation Program (RPP) to incorporate new technology like online job searching and then co taught it with me, as he had experience releasing from and returning to prison. This was a perspective I could not offer students and they flourished with the first hand responses he was able to provide for them. He used his public speaking skills to encourage students to better themselves both academically and emotionally. Many students were able to rebuild confidence and self-worth because of Ortega's motivation. The RPP course was created to cover resume writing, job search skills, interviewing skills, financial management and networking. Ortega assisted in resume writing and resume typing in the computer lab. He also assisted with the set-up of the Mock Job Fair that was held to allow inmates to participate in interviews given by community volunteers.

From my experience as Ortega's supervisor, I have found that he is a very well rounded person, gave a lot of assistance to the Education Department and I would recommend him for any position he applied for. He was always respectful, prompt, organized, reliable and eager to learn more. Learning and teaching are his strengths, as he is a fast learner and shares knowledge with others in an effective manner. Per his Education transcript, he has completed and taught dozens of courses from 2011 through 2015. Said courses are not only from the academic perspective but soft skills that allowed students to grow as a person. In October 2013 Ortega completed the 4000 hour long Teacher's Aide Apprenticeship program. While working in the Education department Ortega was an avid college student. He diligently worked on his Associates Degree during any downtime available. Not only did he maintain a 3.7 GPA and make the Dean's list twice but he was scheduled to graduate with two Associates Degrees in August 2015. His Associates of Science Degree contains a major in Human Behavioral Science and Sociology. His Associates of Arts Degree contains a major in American History, Arts and Humanities, and Business.

I know that in due time Ortega will use his knowledge to obtain a Bachelor's Degree and go on to assist others as he did the Education Department.

Please do not hesitate to call me if you would like to discuss this letter of recommendation further. I can be reached at (209) 386-0257.

Dear Judge Real,

My name is Vanessa Ortega , I am 23 years old and I am Albert Ortega's oldest daughter.

I work as a salon manager at Sunless Beauty.

My dad is someone who is dedicated and passionate. I remember him coming home from work or class and was excited to tell us what he learned that day. Of course as a young child I knew nothing about solar paneling but it was exciting to see how excited he would get to tell me things that made him happy. Being without my dad in my life has been hard, I understand he has made some wrong choices, but with encouragement and a great support system I do believe my dad will be able to do great things here in the real world. This year on July 4, it will be 4 years since my mom has passed away. It was during this rough time my dad showed me and my sisters so much love and support even though he could not physically be with us. He called everyday, sent us encouraging letters and just always reminded us that our mom holds a special place in his heart. Although my dad is remarried, my mothers and his relationship was full of love and respect. Now, me and my sisters need him more than ever. I want him to see me get married and for him to see my sisters to graduate college. To start a new life with him being 100% present in our lives. My dad has missed out on so many amazing mile stones that I am confident that he will not want to miss out on any more. I believe him when he says , the old Albert is gone, and is ready to show everyone what a great addition to society he will be. With the support of my sisters, my grandma, aunts, uncles, and cousins we are ready to come together as one to be there for my dad. I hope you are able to see who the real Albert Ortega is. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Ortega
